in Harry Coverdale's courtship and all that came of it Frank E. Smedley presents a captivating narrative that explores the intricacies of romantic relationships within the social context of 19th century England through witty dialogue and rich character development. Smedley employs a blend of humor and drama to depict the trials of young love, societal expectations, and the whims of fate. The novel's literary style reflects the currents of the Victorian era, engaging readers with its intricate plot and moral reflections while commenting on the tensions between individual desires and societal norms. Frank E. Smedley, an English author and journalist, was deeply influenced by the social mores and expectations of his time. His experiences as a writer for various magazines and newspapers granted him keen insight into the dynamics of courtship and relationships in Victorian society. Smedley's keen observations and personal understanding of love's complexities informed his storytelling, allowing him to craft a narrative that resonates with authenticity and charm. This novel is a must-read for fans of Victorian literature and romantic fiction, providing an insightful glimpse into the past while exploring timeless themes of love, ambition, and personal growth. Readers will find themselves enchanted by Smedley's engaging prose and memorable characters, making this work an invaluable addition to any literary collection.

the grey angel her predilection for things French came from childish recollections of school days in Paris and a hasty removal thence by her father during the revolution of 48 of later travels as a little maiden by diligence to Pau and the then undiscovered Pyrenees to a Montpellier and a nice as yet unspoiled unto her seventy eighth year her French accent had remained unruffled her soul in love with French gloves and dresses and her face had the pale unwrinkled slightly aquiline perfection of the French marquise type it may perhaps be doubted whether any French marquise ever looked the part so perfectly how it came about that she had settled down in a southern French town in the summer of 1914 only her roving spirit knew she had been a widow ten years which she had passed in the quest of perfection all her life she had been haunted by that instinct half smothered in ministering to her husband children and establishments in London and the country now in loneliness the intrinsic independence of her soul was able to assert itself and from hotel to hotel she had wandered in England Wales
